RE- How do different Christians show their beliefs: Y4 Topic Vocabulary Mat

| Subject Specific Vocabulary | |
|---|---|
| Eucharist | The main religious ritual in many churches. The word means thanksgiving; in the service bread and wine are shared as they were at Jesus's Last Supper. |
| Altar | The table used for the Eucharist. |
| Sacrament | A religious ceremony held as a sign or symbol of spirituality. |
| Orthodox | Something regarded as what is believed or practiced by most people. |
| Roman Catholic | Relating to, or being a member of, a Christian church led by priests and bishops under the pope. |
| Anglican | A member of the Church of England. |
| Baptist | A person who believes, and who might carry out, the tradition that adult followers of Jesus should be placed in water to show their faith. |
| Quaker | A member of a Christian religious group founded in England about 1650, called the Society of Friends. |
| Trinity | in Christianity, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, considered as the threefold personality of God. |
| Messiah | A Hebrew term which means 'anointed one'. This is a title given to the person believed to be the saviour, who has been chosen to bring salvation to humankind. The term 'anointed one' is used in both Christianity and Judaism. |
| Chancel | the area near a church's altar where the clergy and choir are seated. |

Key Knowledge

- I know some of the features of a church and their significance to Christians.
- Christianity follows the teachings of Jesus Christ.
- Christianity is made up of different denominations who believe in different variations of those teachings and have different leaders.
- The different denominations of Christianity share common elements of belief.
- The Holy Trinity is one God but three entities.
- A sacrament is a Christian ritual or ceremony.
- There are seven sacraments in Christianity.
- The Eucharist is a Christian ceremony commemorating the Last Supper.
- Not all denominations observe all the sacraments.

Other information

- The Bible is the Christian holy book. In Churches the Bible is placed on a stand called a lectern so that it can be read out loud. In Anglican churches, the lectern will often be in the shape of an eagle. Eagles are associated with John the Apostle who was one of Jesus' twelve disciples.

- Christian churches are a familiar sight in the UK. The main part where worshippers sit is called a nave. Many churches, such as this one in Suffolk, have tall towers at the western end which house bells. Sometimes the towers still have steep spires (pointy roofs) added to them.
