William Patten is a lively and exciting school, situated in the heart of the community on Stoke Newington Church Street. We have high expectations of both children and staff and are currently looking for new members of the team. Our catering team is a valued and exemplary team, who works hard to serve the staff and children at the school. We are currently for one Catering Assistant to join the team.

Successful applicants will be invited to interview on submission of all application forms.

We are looking for someone who:

- Is a friendly, approachable, pro-active and collaborative member of staff
- Is able to communicate effectively with all members of the school community
- Can follow basic instructions and share ideas for good work management
- Has experience of working in a busy catering environment
- Has a basic food hygiene certificate (not mandatory, as training given)

Responsibilities will include:

- To provide support in the preparation, cooking and serving of food and beverages.
- Preparation of service areas and equipment in the service area for efficient and effective delivery of meals and catering services.
- Cleaning of catering areas and kitchen equipment to the required standards

We can offer you:

- A supportive and positive working environment
- The opportunity to work with hugely committed and talented staff
- High expectations and opportunities for ongoing training and professional development
- An exceptional school, with strong parent and professional relationships
- All necessary personal protective equipment (PPE)
- A fabulous location to work in, as the school is situated in the centre of Stoke Newington

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, and expect all staff to share the same view. All posts are subject to an enhanced DBS check. We welcome applications from all sections of the community, regardless of gender identity, race, religion, disability, sexual orientation or age.
