

The Year 6 Talent Show by 6D!

The talented Year six children worked incredibly hard and all their efforts were put together to create this exceptional show. They managed to produce the entire performance throughout only three weeks, and have enjoyed making it as much as everyone enjoyed watching it! After watching the show, every audience member agreed that Year six stunned everyone and their performance was very professional.

The mesmerising voices of Josh and Riley blew the audience away with their rendition of 'Sunflower' by Post Malone and Sway Lee. As the first act of the night, they were both very nervous, Josh quoted, "I was very scared, as the first act, we were setting the standard for the entire show!" At the end of their performance, the crowd were in awe of how talented the young boys were.

The celebrity pie-face sketch was played by the talented Flo, Uma, Jack, Millie, Elliana, Agnes and Amina. They used an amazing combination of hilarious jokes, cheesy lines and pies in the face! It was spectacular how they used six well known artists and used their songs to create a funny way of portraying ideas. Each of the characters had their own part, for example, the host, an amazing act!

The Advanced Advertising Agency, played by Marnie, Clement and Joshua, left the audience in fits of laughter. The act was so unique that everyone wondered how the three friends had thought of it! The show packed in just the right amount of comedy in the right way, for instance, they transformed an old classic, 'Singing in the rain' into a comedic parody. It was hilarious how they made something as boring as advertising into an amazing act.

The comical magician Finn and his assistant Cyrus combined comedy and magic together to make their act, 'The Fincredible Magic Show'. Finn surprised us with his fantastic card trick that wowed the audience and his talent left everyone shocked, bewildered and wanting more.

Next, the incredible Meliz owned the stage as she began to sing her beautiful and emotional song, 'Happier' by Marshmallow ft Bastille. As her astonishing voice rang through the hall, the audience began to clap tearfully along to the moving song. Simply amazing.

An extremely impressive performance followed, held by 'The Brexiteers', Charlie, Luka, George and Freddie which was called 'Stokeminster Parliament'. These four theatrical boys acted as political figures in a hilarious way. This satirical act left tears of laughter in everyone's eyes, and brought joy to children and families that everyone could relate to.

Before the audience had a chance to catch their breath from all the hilarity, the upbeat soundtrack of 'Can't stop the feeling' by Justin Timberlake began as Evie, Ivy, Maya, Iris and Nell spun onto the in a blaze of colour. Their uplifting and mesmerising dance routine left tears of joy in the on looking crowds' eyes, and their glittery finale left everyone speechless

Next up, we were blown away by the stunning dancing by Marleigh, Nadia and Cia to 'Uptown Funk' by Bruno Mars. Unfortunately, Nadia was absent during the parent's show, so Marleigh and Cia had to create another dance for that occasion. During the production, the girls performed an explosion of cartwheels and gymnastics that truly wowed the audience.

The next stunning dance act included Raffaella, Asia and Manpreet. This amazing dance was perfectly in sync with the song 'Don't call me up' by Mabel. Using many different moves that astonished the audience, they managed to leave everyone flabbergasted by the Year six dancers.

When the audience thought that the show couldn't get any better, Ezra took to the stage. His sensational and moving dance to 'To build a home' by the Cinematic orchestra left everyone star struck. His ballet was beautiful and the crowd felt contrasting emotions between joy and heartache. Parents shed a tear, not only in sadness but in happiness as well.

Molly's breath-taking performance of 'Viva La Viva' by Coldplay brought tears to the audience's eyes. The dazzling choir in the background created an emotional rollercoaster as Molly interacted with the audience and sang beautifully, like an angel.

Next, the audience dived into a hysterical comedy act 'Who Wants To Be A Quintillionaire?' featuring Obinna, Muhammed I., Muhe, Muhamed T., Britvee, Jarvan, Akbar, Gabriel and Terell. This amazingly funny show was a hilarious comedic act and left the audience laughing their heads off!

The mind-blowing new invention –designed by the great 'inventor' Enoch (made by Brody) – 'The BrodyBot', was the star of the show. The sensational robot turned out to be (surprise surprise) the one and only Brody! The incredible act left the audience blown away!

A spectacular musical miracle performed 'Live Forever' by Oasis. The band, Infinite Echo, included Aidan, Kit, Bill and Vincent. The band sounded amazing, what a fabulous act!

Next, the audience got to watch a brilliant performance from Sergey, Chris, Huxley and Tanak, singing 'Old Town Road' by Lil' Naz X. After the show, the audience were shocked by their unique talent!

The audience were suddenly hauled into the second rock band: 'The Pink Pigs' playing 'Smells Like Teen Spirit'. The song was brought to life with amazing amounts of energy, musicality, and an unmistakable sense to live the rock 'n' roll dream. The band included Marlowe, Pablo, Flo, Rudy, Cyrus and Aidan and they made the dream team!

The legendary performance that Elsie provided us with left us starstruck. Elsie performed 'Legends Never Die' with mind-blowing courage and tremendous vocals. As the penultimate act, she began to conclude with a bang!

As an amazing final act the audience were blown away by the talent from Maya, Henry, Rudy, Nell, Kit and Vincent performing 'Born to be wild'. With Vincent feeling very sick, Flo was about to step in on the drums, but he made an amazing comeback and got himself on stage. It was a spectacular show!

At the end of the incredible show, the wonderful Year sixes came together to perform their unique version of 'Fame' which highlighted their favourite memories of their years at William Patten. The children's actions were bold and their powerful voices evoked strong emotions in everyone. It left the audience up on their feet and singing along, it was the perfect ending to a perfect show!
