

Brahman

reincarnation

karma

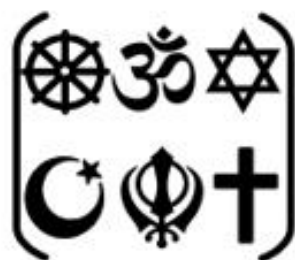

moksha

Al-Barzakh

soul

RE - What happens when we die?

yartzeit

afterlife

support

funeral

Shiva

Kaddish

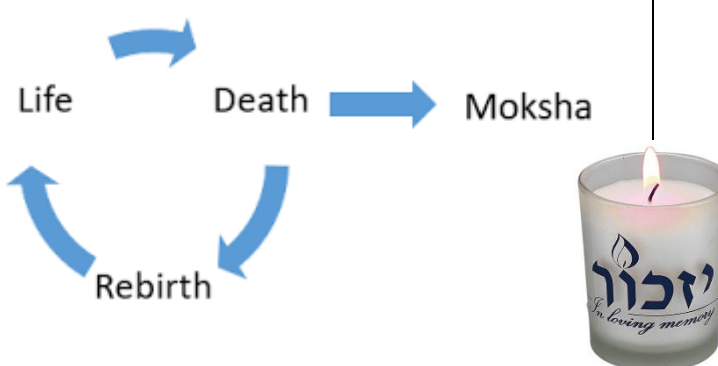

Mitsvah

Allah

Allah

Y4 RE – What happens when we die? Topic Vocabulary Mat

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Relevant Pictures	Books/Websites
Brahman	Hindus believe that in each living thing there is a part of God, Brahman.		https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p02n5v2q
Soul	Many philosophies and religions say that a soul is the part of a living human being, which is separate from the physical body.
reincarnation	The belief that a dead person's spirit (or soul) returns to life in another body. Hindus and Buddhists believe in reincarnation.
karma	In religions such as Hinduism and Buddhism, karma is a type of energy that determines your future. For example, good deeds and actions result in future positivity.	What I've learnt already	Key Knowledge
moksha	A positive end to the cycle of birth, life, death and reincarnation, achieved by good karma.	Y2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Religions often contain a moral code with rules for living. Some people believe in heaven and hell. The Buddhist Wheel of Life was created to help people understand Buddhist teachings. Easter is the Christian festival that celebrates the Christian belief that Jesus was resurrected. Many Gods are worshipped in Hinduism; Each Hindu God is said to be a different part of the supreme God 'Brahman'. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hindus believe that in each living thing there is a part of God, Brahman; when that person dies this part leaves the body and is reincarnated into another body.
Kaddish	a Jewish prayer recited in the daily ritual of the synagogue and by mourners at public services after the death of a close relative.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hindus believe that if a person has been good they will have good 'Karma' (a type of energy).
Mitzvah	A command or law, observed by all practicing Jews.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hindus believe that if you have good karma, when you die your 'soul' will be released from this cycle of birth, death and reincarnation, and will go back to God (Brahman) - this is called moksha.
Shiva	Shiva, the Jewish mourning ritual , begins right after the burial and continues for seven days. During the week of Shiva, friends and relatives visit and comfort the family of the deceased. The ritual allows them to share their pain, but also to trade stories and memories of the person they've lost.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Muslims believe that when they die the soul goes to Al-Barzakh, where they wait until the day of judgement. Muslims believe that on the day of judgment everyone will be raised to life again and stand before Allah, who will judge their souls. The reward for good souls will be Heaven, which is described as a beautiful garden.
Al-Barzakh	Muslims believe that when they die the angel of death takes the souls to Al-Barzakh, where they wait until the Day of Judgement.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Christians believe that only Jesus was resurrected and came back to life. Some Christians believe that if a person has been good, their souls will be rewarded by going to Heaven.