	Topic	How and why do people celebrate harvest?	How and why do Christians celebrate Christmas?	Who are the Muslims in our Community?	What is important to Jews?	What does Diwali teach Hindus about Good and Evil?
	Key Knowledge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Christians and Jews believe there is a God, who created the world and is good. Christians and Jews believe that the food grown in the ground, grown on trees or collected from animals is made by God, as it is natural Many Christians and Jews show gratitude to God for food by saying a prayer before or after eating. Harvest is when food is collected by farmers and the Harvest Festival is a way that Christians show their gratitude to God To know some of customs associated with the Harvest festival (such as singing hymns, praying and decorating churches with baskets of fruit and food/donating food to charity). Many Christians donate food to others during the time of harvest and believe it is a time to consider and help others who do not have enough to eat The Jewish festival of Sukkot is a harvest celebration members of Jewish community might build a Sukkah from natural materials and eat in it for a week. To know that the Sukkot ceremony is a waving ceremony involving the etrog and lulav and that waving these is a way of showing happiness and reminding Jewish people that God is all around. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Christmas is on the 25th December and this is when Christians celebrate the birth of Jesus. To know the story of the nativity To know/recall that in the nativity, the wise men gave gifts of gold frankincense and myrrh Christians give gifts at Christmas because the wise men brought gifts to Jesus and because they believe Jesus is a gift from God. Gifts can be made, as well as bought, and that gifts can 'immaterial' To know what advent is and how it is celebrated in church and in many Christian homes. To know what each candle on an advent wreath represents. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The 5 pillars of Islam are: Belief in one God (Shahadah), Prayer (Salah), Charity (Zakah), Fasting (Sawm) and pilgrimage (Hajj) and to begin to understand what each of these is like in practice. Muslims believe in one god, who they call Allah. Allah has at least 99 names which are also called the '99 Attributes of Allah'. Muslims do not draw Allah or Muhammad and doing so would be considered disrespectful. Muslims may wear a prayer hat (Topi), pray on a special mat or use prayer beads called Tasbeeh. The Islamic call to prayer is called Adhan . It is called from the mosque) five times a day. Muslims believe Muhammad (pbuh) is a messenger from Allah. To know the story of how Muhammad (pbuh) received the message of Allah from Gabriel in the Muslim month of Ramadan. To know that Muslims always say 'Peace' and 'Blessings be upon him' when they say or write the name of the prophet and never draw pictures of him, as a sign of respect. The Qur'an is the holy text of the Islamic Faith. To understand the meanings of halal and haram and to know which foods are which. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Abraham is seen as the father of the Jewish religion. Abraham's story is told in the Book of Genesis (the first book of the Hebrew Bible). Jews believe that Judaism began when Abraham began to worship one God instead of the many idols or statues his father had done. The core Jewish religious belief is that there is one eternal God who is a spirit and has no human form. Jewish people declare this belief every day with the Shema prayer. The Torah is the most holy Jewish text (Torah means teachings in Hebrew). The synagogue is a building where Jews go to worship God. Teachers of the Jewish faith are called rabbis. They lead worship in the synagogue Shabbat is the Jewish day of rest. Jewish people believe that God created the world in 6 days and then he rested. This is why they rest on Shabbat.(Jewish people have to cook before Shabbat starts, because on Shabbat they rest.) Shabbat is very important to Jewish people: they dress in their best clothes, serve the best food, set the table beautifully and light candles. Often guests are invited to share food, stories and prayers. Special loaves of bread called challot or challah bread are served during Shabbat with special wine On Shabbat, Jews go to Synagogue. Havdalah is the end of Shabbat. A special plaited candle (Havdalah candle) is lit and prayers are said. Spices are smelt and sweet wine or grape juice is used to put out the candle. Havdalah helps to separate Shabbat from the rest of the week. In Jewish homes you might find a mezuzah on the doorpost. It is a little case containing a tiny scroll with writing from the bible. It is called the Shema and is written in Hebrew. It reminds Jewish people to love God and live by his rules. When they come through the door, Jewish people kiss the mezuzah." 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The story of Rama and Sita comes from the religion of Hinduism and is often remembered during the festival of Diwali. Diwali is the 'festival of lights', Celebrated by millions of Hindus, Sikhs and Jains across the world. To know that the villagers in the Hindi Diwali story made a chain of lights to guide Rama and Sita out of the forest Know that light is often used as a symbol for hope, happy occasions or 'good' happiness in general. Know that we can make links between communities/groups/religions and that they may have similar ideas of what 'good' means and what good actions might be. Diwali celebrates the start of the financial new year for Hindus. know the different ways in which Hindus celebrate Diwali (lighting lamps, sweets, Rangoli patterns, Mandir, etc)

To know that Christians believe that Jesus was resurrected. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> It is important to do the right thing. Some right things are different for some people. Religion can affect what people think is right and wrong (like eating pork). People in our lives can influence what we think (such as our parents or grandparents). Some people believe in heaven and hell. Temptation can cause people to do bad things sometimes. Religions often contain a moral code with rules for living. Forgiveness is important in many religions' moral codes. The Buddhist Wheel of Life was created to help people understand Buddhist teachings. The 10 commandments are a set of rules which are important in the Christian and Jewish Faiths.

You won't find pews and seats like in churches; rugs or mats usually cover the floor instead.Mosques are often large buildings with beautiful towers and domes.Outside most mosques is a tall tower, called a minaret. In some mosques this is where a crier or muezzin calls Muslims to prayer from.Every mosque must also have running water as Muslims must wash their face, hands and feet before they pray (ablution). They also take off their shoes when they enter the mosque.Women and men don't worship together in mosques and music and singing are not part of worship in Islam, to avoid distractionThere are no pictures of people or animals in a mosque; the Qu'ran forbids the worship of images, and Muslim people also believe that art could never reflect the magnificence of Allah's creation well enough.Islamic art is dedicated to the design of intricate, colourful patterns and to calligraphy, beautiful writing.Ramadan is part of the Islamic calendar and is the ninth month of the Muslim year. It is a time when Muslims celebrate Allah's message to Muhammad (pbuh)During Ramadan Muslims are expected to fast – not eat or drink – during daylight hours.Eid means festival in Arabic. Christianity is made up of different denominations who believe in different variations of those teachings and have different leaders.The different denominations of Christianity share common elements of belief.The Holy Trinity is one God but three entities.A sacrament is a Christian ritual or ceremony.There are seven sacraments in Christianity. The Eucharist is a Christian ceremony commemorating the Last Supper.Not all denominations observe all the sacraments.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The Qur'an, or Koran is it is sometimes known, is the holy book of Muslims who believe it contains the message of Allah.There are strict criteria in handling the Qur'an.The Qur'an is written in Arabic and Muslims always try to read and recite it in this language.Muhammad (pbuh) was born in Makkah (also known as Mecca), which is now modern-day Saudi Arabia, in AD 570.Muslims believe that in a cave on mount Nur, near Makkah, Allah spoke to Muhammad (pbuh) for the first time through the angel Jibril and revealed the first verse of the Qur'an to him. (Expansion of Y1 knowledge)A Surah is the term for a chapter of the Qu'ran.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Hindus believe that in each living thing there is a part of God, Brahman; when that person dies this part leaves the body and is reincarnated into another body.Hindus believe that if a person has been good they will have good 'Karma' (a type of energy).Hindus believe that if a person has been bad, they will have bad karma and might be reincarnated into an animal, rather than a human person.Hinduis believe that if you have good karma, when you die your 'soul' will be released from this cycle of birth, death and reincarnation, and will go back to God (Brahman) - this is called moksha.Muslims believe that when they die the angel of death takes souls to Al-Barzakh, where they wait until the day of judgement.On the day of judgment everyone will be raised to life again and stand before Allah, who will judge their souls.The reward for good souls will be Heaven, which is described as a beautiful garden.Bad souls will be sent to Hell (Jahannan) where they will be without Allah's love.Christians believe that only Jesus was resurrected and came back to life.Christians believe that every person has a soul and when they die, God will judge whether the soul is good or bad.Some Christians believe that if a person has been good, their souls will be rewarded by going to Heaven.Christians believe that this is where god is and may describe it in different ways. Some Christians call this 'The Kingdom of God'.Some Christians believe that if a person has been bad, their souls will be punished in a place called Hell.
