

Music Knowledge and Skills Progression Map

EYFS Framework

Communication and Language

ELG: Listening, Attention and Understanding

- Listen attentively and respond to what they hear with relevant questions, comments and actions when being read to and during whole class discussions and small group interactions;
- Make comments about what they have heard and ask questions to clarify their understanding; - Hold conversation when engaged in back-and-forth exchanges with their teacher and peers.

ELG: Speaking

- Participate in small group, class and one-to-one discussions, offering their own ideas, using recently introduced vocabulary
- Offer explanations for why things might happen, making use of recently introduced vocabulary from stories, non-fiction, rhymes and poems when appropriate
- Express their ideas and feelings about their experiences using full sentences, including use of past, present and future tenses and making use of conjunctions, with modelling and support from their teacher.

Physical Development

ELG: Fine Motor Skills

- Use a range of small tools.

Expressive Arts and Design

ELG: Being Imaginative and Expressive

- Sing a range of well-known nursery rhymes and songs; Perform songs, rhymes, poems and stories with others, and – when appropriate – try to move in time with music.

National Curriculum

KS1

Singing	Playing an Instrument	Listening and appreciating	Creating own music
Use their voices expressively and creatively by singing songs and speaking chants and rhymes	Play tuned and untuned instruments musically	Listen with concentration and understanding to a range of high-quality live and recorded music	Experiment with, create, select and combine sounds using the inter-related dimensions of music.

KS2

Pupils should be taught to sing and play musically with increasing confidence and control. They should develop an understanding of musical composition, organising and manipulating ideas within musical structures and reproducing sounds from aural memory.
Performing	Using and Understanding	Composing	Listening	Appreciating	History of Music
Play and perform in solo and ensemble contexts, using their voices and playing musical instruments with increasing accuracy, fluency, control and expression	Use and understand staff and other musical notations	Improvise and compose music for a range of purposes using the inter-related dimensions of music	Listen with attention to detail and recall sounds with increasing aural memory	Appreciate and understand a wide range of high-quality live and recorded music drawn from different traditions and from great composers and musicians	Develop an understanding of the history of music.

	Key Skills	To copy back with instruments, without and then with notation. To listen and develop a greater understanding of string instruments and their historical contexts. To listen and develop a greater understanding of wind instruments and their historical contexts. To listen and develop a greater understanding of keyboard instruments and their historical contexts. To confidently identify and move to the pulse. To talk about the musical dimensions working together in the Unit songs eg if the song gets louder in the chorus (dynamics). To talk about the music and how it makes them feel. To help create at least one simple melody using one, three or all five different notes. To plan and create a section of music that can be performed within the context of the unit song. To talk about how it was created. To listen to and reflect upon the developing composition and make musical decisions about pulse, rhythm, pitch, dynamics and tempo. To clap and say back rhythms. To create your own simple rhythm patterns. To lead the class using their simple rhythms. To copy back with instruments, without and then with notation.	To sing a song in verse/chorus structure with complex musical structure, part singing based on echoing, and few repeated lyrics other than the chorus. To sing in time and rhythm with class ensemble, and whole KS songs that use syncopated and non-syncopated rhythms in structures other than verse/chorus, with entire lyric changes, and part singing based on echoing. To co-ordinate singing and actions that are almost dance moves rather than descriptive of lyric definition. Doing this for single and double beats, and syncopated and non-syncopated rhythms, and in parts across the class rather than as a whole class ensemble. To rehearse and achieve performance of class song and also be able to maintain a confident place in singing in combined KS 2 songs as developing members of the Key Stage. To be able to work with the team to memorise and perform songs that use syncopated and non-syncopated rhythms in various structures, with complex lyrics and echoing parts. To be able to listen to the entire ensemble to ensure correct entry, lyric, and tempo, and sustain confidence with the older year groups in this process, and understand where any echoing phrases mat need to come in. To increase aural memory as lyric content of entire show will have new melodic, rhythmic and lyric ideas that are more complex in construction, and to perform.	To treat instruments carefully and with respect. To play any one, or all four, differentiated parts on a tuned instrument – a one-note, simple or medium part or the melody of the song from memory or using notation. To rehearse and perform their part within the context of the Unit song. To listen to and follow musical instructions from a leader. To experience leading the playing by making sure everyone plays in the playing section of the song. To play the Glocks as part of a small ensemble, with particular attention to own part. To sing with awareness of being 'in tune'. To have an awareness of the pulse internally when singing To discover and use the simple notational scores based on numbers and space. To play more musically complex melodies increasing ability. Defined and visual structures of songs increasing understanding of music analysis/listening. To experience leading the playing by making sure everyone plays in the playing section of the song. To discover and use the simple notational scores based on numbers and space. To successfully be able to play only one note in a sequence in which the rest of the class similarly only plays one note, and discovering that timing is vital to success in this process.	To rehearse and perform their part within the context of the Unit song – 'Ode to Joy' To play either tuned or untuned percussion in a piece that focussing on timbre. To play either tuned or untuned percussion, or using their voice, in a piece that focuses on texture. To confidently identify and move to the pulse. To talk about the musical dimensions working together in the Unit songs eg if the song gets louder in the chorus (dynamics). To talk about the music and how it makes them feel. To listen carefully and respectfully to other people's thoughts about the music. When you talk try to use musical words. To listen to sounds analysing their timbral qualities, and from this selecting the most appropriate timbral qualities to use to create a specified environment. To gain awareness of music vertically as well as horizontally	To learn to interpret play and perform using different types of graphic notation for body percussions, simple vocal sounds and text. To devise and use new forms of graphic notation so that body percussions, simple vocal sounds and text may be remembered, rehearsed and performed. To listen to performances of other groups and determine what might be represented by the body percussion or vocal noises they experience, as well as understand the text they hear. To help create at least one simple melody using one, three or all five different notes. To plan and create a section of music that can be performed within the context of the unit song. To talk about how it was created. To listen to and reflect upon the developing composition and make musical decisions about pulse, rhythm, pitch, dynamics and tempo. To devise and use graphic notation for body percussion, vocal sounds and text as rehearsal and performance score.
	Key Skills	To be able to recognise and recall names of several composers from a range of countries and contexts, and be able to suggest likely country of origin as well as dates of birth and death. To be able to identify the way elements and musics changed over time and understand how this was reflected within an historical context.

	Key Knowledge	To be able to remember an increasing number of composers by name with only their initials, nationality and dates as reference. To know about significant changes in musical style in art music from the renaissance to the present day, and the many and varied contexts and countries in which composers lived. To learn the name, nationality and genre of a new composer each week as well as a most significant or defining feature of their life or music, the context in which they lived.
Can play and perform in solo and ensemble contexts, using voice and playing musical instruments with increasing accuracy, fluency, control and expression. Can use and understand staff and other musical notations. Can improvise and compose music for a range of purposes using the inter-related dimensions of music. Can listen with attention to detail and recall sounds with increasing aural memory. Appreciates and understands a wide range of high-quality live and recorded music drawn from different traditions and from great composers and musicians. Has developed an understanding of the history of music.	Key Knowledge	To know what timbre is and how it contributes to creating the atmosphere of a piece. To know what texture is and how we listen to layers within a piece. To recognise the most appropriate methods of notation previously learned and decide which might be most applicable in this context, focussing on texture and structure. To know which instruments might best be used to create the layers of sounds which are most appropriate for representation of the chosen topic. To know how to identify and separate like and unlike timbres within the percussion family. To understand the basic principles of graphic and standard musical notation, to succeed in reading from and playing a score together as a class ensemble. To know how to use standard music notation to learn the fragment of melody.	To learn new melodies, lyrics and actions, and a class song in which there will be part singing based on echoing like phrases entire verses will have different lyrics, with a repeated chorus of a structure that uses complex musical concepts, few repeated lyrics other than chorus, and musical complexity appropriate to the developing stages of KS 2. To consolidate knowledge of verse/chorus structure in a song as well as learn new structures such as part singing based on echoing. To sing in parts, or in rounds with their class and the entire Key Stage, singing the more complex part with year 6. To gain a greater knowledge of songs from other cultures other than those already known. To gain a greater knowledge of songs from different times throughout history, and the different elements of music that might be pertinent or identifying as from that time.	To learn about and play the key rhythms from the South American samba tradition, comprising of a repeated motivic riff and a call and response section, in which the class respond as one ensemble, and then a layered section in which children work in instrument sections playing their particular rhythm. The rhythms are quite syncopated and are learnt by ear as is traditional. We also use short sentences to remember how they sound, in the absence of much presence of samba in London. To be given the space to improvise a short rhythmic solo which is embedded within the structure of the samba. To understand structure can be from the aural perspective entirely, and so understand what to play based only on what is heard. To learn about the traditional South American samba by listening to different recordings so that similar rhythms can be identified as well as variation within the tradition. To understand how samba sits within an historical context for the people of South America, how it has grown and what has remained.	To maintain own part whilst others are performing their part. To compose music which meets specific criteria. To choose the most appropriate tempo for a piece of music. To use notation to record compositions in a small group or individually To be able to repeat a phrase from the music after listening intently. To know which instruments might best be used to create the layers of sounds which are most appropriate for representation of the chosen topic. To describe, compare and evaluate music using musical vocabulary To explain why they think music is successful or unsuccessful	To maintain own part whilst others are performing their part. To choose the most appropriate tempo for a piece of music. To be able to repeat a phrase from the music after listening intently. To know that the use of aural memory will help to both develop the piece and to use it in creating it, as well as in performance. To describe, compare and evaluate music using musical vocabulary	To be able to listen to the needs of others - with a common goal in mind and adapt accordingly. To know how to use standard music notation to learn the fragment of melody. Drawing from all forms of notation learnt and utilised in music, know which might be the most appropriate form to use in creating the short piece.
	Cross Curricular Links	Geography discovering some more of the South American nations as well as expanding knowledge on their musical and wider culture.	History - the context within which their song(s) were written and sung RE -the Christmas story across cultures and the world.	Social sciences - this unit of work uses knowledge learned in the classroom about the solar system. It is designed to allow students to further explore this topic of work within a musical/movement based environment. Maths -when music is constructed with the children, the patterns and layers within music become more obvious and transparent. The musical parameters which enable layers to be placed on top of each other and be heard concurrently become far more evident.

Has developed an understanding of the history of music.	Key Knowledge	To play or sing, or move as required within the group or solo composition, allowing the end result to inform the nature of exactly what is trying to be achieved. Drawing from all forms of notation learnt and utilised in music, know which might be the most appropriate form to use in creating the short piece To know that the use of aural memory will help to both develop the piece and to use it in creating it, as well as in performance. To accurately recall a part of the music listened to To know the genre or style that the piece is based upon, and to be able to state who or what that is. To know, if there is an historical context, the specific areas which need to be addressed in order to be sincere to that genre or style. To use a variety of different musical devices in composition (including melody, rhythms and chords). To evaluate how the venue, occasion and purpose affects the way a piece of music is created.	To learn new melodies, lyrics and actions, and a class song in which there will be part singing, in which verses will have more lyrics than in previous years, and a structure that uses complex musical concepts, and a musical complexity appropriate to the advanced stages of KS 2. To consolidate knowledge of verse/chorus structure in a song as well as learn new structures such as part singing based on part singing. To sing in parts, or in rounds with their class and the entire Key Stage, leading the more complex part, as year 6. To sing in harmony confidently and accurately. To perform parts from memory To take the lead in a performance To gain a greater knowledge of songs from different times throughout history, and the different elements of music that might be pertinent or identifying as from that time the knowledge extending to incorporate general historical context and genre.	To play a musical instrument with the correct technique within the context of the Unit song. To select and learn an instrumental part that matches their musical challenge, using one of the differentiated parts – a one-note, simple or medium part or the melody of the song from memory or using notation.
