Shahada – pillar one	A declaration of the Islamic faith. The English translation is: “There is no god except Allah, Muhammad (PBUH) is the messenger of Allah.” Muslims say this when they pray.		Key Knowledge
Salah – pillar two	Prayers. Muslims pray five times a day and follow a special ritual to do so. First they must wash in symbolically clean water.	What I've learnt already Y5 (Autumn): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The ancient Egyptian empire lasted for about 3000 years (30 centuries) from its unification around 3100BC to its conquest by Alexander the Great in 332BC. Y4 (History): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Roman Empire was well established by AD55 (the Middle Ages is regarded as the era that followed the fall of the ancient Roman Empire). Y3 (RE): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Islamic art is dedicated to the design of intricate, colourful patterns and to calligraphy, beautiful writing. Mosques are often large buildings with beautiful towers and domes 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Golden Age of Islam began in Baghdad. The 5 pillars of Islam promote the values and virtues of the Islamic Faith Muslim and non-Muslim scholars translated important academic studies in the House of Wisdom.
Zakat – pillar three	Looking after other people. Each Muslim gives up a share of his wealth each year to provide for those less fortunate. The word zakat means to purify or cleanse.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Islamic empire was the first 'truly universal civilisation' which brought together for the first time 'peoples as diverse as the Chinese, the Indians, the people of the Middle East and North Africa, black Africans and white Europeans'.
Sawm – pillar four	Ramadan - the ninth month of the Islam calendar and the holy month during which Muhammad (PBUH) began to receive messages from God.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Many of the inventions and discoveries of the Muslims at this time are still significant today.
Hajj – pillar five	All Muslims have a duty to make a pilgrimage to Makkah at least once in their life. Very often whole families will save to send one person at a time.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The crusades contributed to the decline of the Islamic golden age (understanding why this happened).
