

Map

Drawing

Timeline

Photograph

World War II

Tudor

History: History of Hackney

HMS Windrush

Mary
Wollstonecraft

England

Women's rights

Education

William Patten
School

Caribbean

Hackney

Y1 History - Local Heritage: Y1 Topic Vocabulary Mat

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Relevant Pictures	Exciting Books/Websites
Map	A map is a drawing of all or part of Earth's surface. Its basic purpose is to show where things are.
Timeline	A graphical representation of events in chronological order over a period of time in order of their occurrence.		Other information https://lookup.london/sutton-house-hackney/
Hackney	A borough in North East London and the borough that Stoke Newington is in – which is where William Patten is.
World War II	World War II was a conflict between 1939 and 1945 that involved all the world's major countries. It was the most destructive war in history and millions of people were killed.
HMS Windrush	HMS Windrush is remembered for bringing one of the first large groups of post-World War II immigrants to the United Kingdom. The ship carried 1027 passengers on a voyage from Jamaica to London in 1948.	What I've learnt already	Key Knowledge
Mary Wollstonecraft	Mary Wollstonecraft was a renowned women's rights activist who wrote 'A Vindication of the Rights of Woman', 1792, that is considered the earliest and most important advocate for equality for women.	EYFS: <ul style="list-style-type: none">I have explored the world around me, noting different forms of transport.I have used the senses to explore the natural environment.I have explored the natural world around me – planted seeds and seedlings in the reception garden area and the Edible Playground.I can describe what I can see, hear and feel whilst outside.I know that some environments are different to the one in which I live.I have made observations and drawings of animals and plants in my surroundings.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">I can recognise that Hackney has changed over time from prehistory to the present day.I can understand that lots of parts of Hackney were destroyed in World War II.I know that in 1948 a ship called the Empire Windrush arrived in London, from the Caribbean, with people coming to live and work in Britain.I know that Mary Wollstonecraft was a writer who wanted education for all and campaigned for equal rights. She opened a school for girls.